

2008 Founders Festival Community Parade Awards

Entry Categories:

School, Business/Commercial, Miscellaneous, and Youth or Non Profit Group

Best Representation of Theme

*Awarded to the group whose entry best exemplifies our theme
"Flashback to the 80's"*

Best Representation of Theme-School

1st Place-Etiwanda High School
2nd Place-Banyan Elementary School
3rd Place-Los Osos High School

Best Representation of Theme-Youth or Non Profit Group

1st Place-Rancho Foothill Girl Scouts
2nd Place-Girl Scout Troop 1045
3rd Place-Dance Terrific

Best Representation of Theme-Business/Commercial

1st Place-Omaha Jacks Grill House
2nd Place-Performance Martial Arts
3rd Place-Burrtec Waste

Best Representation of Theme-Miscellaneous

1st Place-RC Community Theater
2nd Place-The A-Team
3rd Place-Go Go's RC Community Theater

Most Creative

Awarded to the group whose entry displays great imagination and creativity.

Most Creative-School

1st Place-John L. Golden Elementary

2nd Place-Banyan Elementary

3rd Place-San Joaquin Valley College

Most Creative-Youth or Non Profit Group

1st Place-Girl Scout Troop 1125

2nd Place-Rancho Foothill Girl Scouts

3rd Place-Summit Ridge Church

Most Creative-Business/Commercial

1st Place-Omaha Jacks Grill House

2nd Place-Sons of Italy

3rd-Burrtec Waste

Most Creative-Miscellaneous

1st Place-Alta Loma Riding Club

2nd Place-Pomona Valley Mothers of Twins

3rd Place-Divine Divas/Red Hat Ladies

Most Participation

Awarded to the group with the most participants in their entry.

Most Participation-School

1st Place-Etiwanda High School

Most Participation-Youth or Non Profit

1st Place-Rancho Foothill Girl Scouts

Most Participation-Business/Commercial

1st Place-Leadership Martial Arts

Most Participation-Miscellaneous

1st Place-VFW Post 8680

Founders Award

Single award for the group that displays the most outstanding spirit and enthusiasm in their parade participation

Winner - Cheerleaders Spirit Association

Best Overall Float

Single award for the float entry in any category

Winner-Performance Martial Arts